STATINTL

This represents another contribution in my program to make you gradually aware of selected Agency activities.

STATINTL

2. Under provisions of applicable law, and by agreethe Agency makes ment with the available to its employees, within Agency facilities, STATINTL credit academic courses. The courses are taught by Agency employees whose bona fides are acceptable to the and who are authorized by that university to perform in a teaching capacity. The university pays the teachers, conducts the registration program, and monitors the curriculum.

- The attached memorandum to me of 24 February will acquaint you with the facts pertaining to the spring 1976 semester of the program which we refer to as the "Off-Campus Program".
- 4. All but 10 of the attendees will have their fees paid by the Agency. Funds for this program are included in the annual budget for the Office of Training.
